

Consumer Scams
25

Consumer Scams
50

Consumer Scams
100

Consumer Scams
200

Which of these tactics are used in telephone scams?

- a. Offering free goods, if you pay the shipping charge
- b. A request to act quickly
- c. A request for your credit card number for verification
- d. All of the above

There are lots of different kinds of phone calls, but there's one type that can really rack up the bucks:

- a. 800 and 888 – number calls
- b. 900 – number calls
- c. Minute-to-minute calls

All of these are good ways to protect yourself from telephone scams EXCEPT:

- a. Asking detailed questions
- b. Getting all information in writing before you agree to buy
- c. Giving your credit card number over the phone

Credit card fraud is when:

- a. Your credit card is stolen
- b. An unauthorized user charges goods or services to your credit card
- c. Someone other than yourself signs the back of your card and makes purchases
- d. All of the above